After about an hour at that stop, we boarded the bus again and went to Blarney Castle. The grounds and castle were fantastic as was the Mill gift shop. Finally, we went to Cahir Castle, which was an old Irish fort, made into a full castle by the Normans and conquered by the British. All in all a great tour of the Irish countryside with a large dose of history thrown in. Alek our tour guide was fantastic and kept us informed and entertained. Highly recommend this trip to any traveler.
